Dear readers ,

Re: Mr Ravi Jeetoo

It gives me great pleasure to support and praise Ravi as a professional Holistic Therapist. I have received several treatments via Ravi and due to my Chronic Arthritis and circulatory problems. I can sum his services below;

- I can confirm that he can confidently deliver his Therapy proficiently including the necessary component advice on maintenance.
- Ravi is an excellent practitioner, with clear understanding of the physiological and spiritual necessities involved in remedying any concerns.
- Ravi has an excellent understanding of Diversity and shared cultural values that can affect well being.
- Ravi has demonstrated proficiency in management and aware of teaching and learning target setting for his clientele.
- Ravi had demonstrated different approaches to therapy and incorporating self help coaching skills to allow healing to take place.
- Ravi has excellent organisational skill is and fully appreciates the benefits and ethos of a healthy living environments.
- Ravi clearly understands the value of celebrating clients' recovery and recuperations process takes pride in seeing things through.
- I have experienced Ravi tremendous human skills and is a great Therapist and person. He has empowered me to heal myself to take care of my broader out- look to life sustenance to a peaceful inner world.

He is a pleasure to work with, and I wish him well in his practice and wholly recommend his services to any aspirant to learning /receiving his values and holistic therapies.

Yours Sincerely
